2026 GoRail Presidents Club

Attendees Directory

Mike Ahten
Chief Estimator
Anderzack-Pitzen Construction
mahten@wecandigit.com
(419) 765-8019

Mike Ahten has over 29 years of experience in the heavy civil construction industry, specializing in bridges, structural concrete and sitework. Mike is attending this event on behalf of Anderzack-Pitzen to develop relationships with industry professionals and open up new business opportunities with clients.

Ronald Albee
President/ Owner
Jay-Reese Contractors, Inc.
ralbee@jayreese.net
(512) 829-5360

After spending over 20 years with construction companies Robert E. McKee and Kiewit, Ron moved to Austin in 1988 and founded Jay-Reese Contractors, Inc. His vast experience and foresight have aided him in leading the company forward through the ups and downs of the economy as well as the industry. Under Ron's guidance, Jay-Reese has striven to maintain a reputation as a company that builds high quality projects with a great level of integrity and attention to detail.

Tony Allen
Certified Public Accountant
Allen CFO Group
tony@allencfogroup.com
910-832-9200

Anthony Allen is the managing member of Allen CFO Group, LLC in eastern North Carolina, where he provides fractional CFO services, tax consulting, and accounting support. A Villanova University alumnus and CPA, he specializes in assisting nonprofits, small businesses, and professional service companies. His extensive career includes serving as a managing director at BDO USA, a partner at Hertzbach & Co., and as a founding partner at Fry & Allen, P.C.

John Aoueille
Vice President and Insurance Advisor
Watkins Insurance Group
jaoueille@watkinsinsurancegroup.com
(512) 452-8877

John is a Vice-President and Shareholder at Watkins Insurance Group where he has been employed since 2012. He specializes in Commercial and Personal lines. He is a graduate of Southwest Texas State University.

Chase Armstrong
Chief Commercial Officer - Contracted Services
R. J. Corman Railroad Group
harrison.armstrong@rjcorman.com
(859) 881-2441

Chase Armstrong joined R. J. Corman in 2012. He has held numerous positions including business development manager, corporate account manager, director of sales, and assistant vice president of commercial development before taking on the role of vice president of commercial development. In this position he oversees commercial activities for R. J. Corman's contracted services group which includes railroad services emergency and non-emergency, signaling, and material sales. Chase is responsible for building and executing sales plans for all R. J. Corman contracted services opportunities and communication with clients. He also has supervisory responsibility for territorial commercial development managers. Chase has a thorough understanding of the many facets of R. J. Corman and the railroad industry market landscape. He serves on the board of directors of the National Railroad Construction and Maintenance Association (NRC), and holds a Bachelor of Science in Government/Public Relations from Morehead State University.

Adrian Arnakis
Senior Vice President Government Affairs
Association of American Railroads
aarnakis@aar.org
(703) 864-0925

Adrian Arnakis leads the rail industry’s government affairs and advocacy efforts in Washington. Before joining the Association of American Railroads, Arnakis served for more than 13 years in the U.S. Senate, where she was a policy leader and trusted advisor on transportation and infrastructure issues.

Chuck Baker
President
American Short Line and Regional Railroad Association (ASLRRA)
cbaker@aslrra.org
(202) 585-3440

Chuck Baker joined the American Short Line and Regional Railroad Association (ASLRRA) as President in 2019. His previous 15 year career in the rail industry includes being a Partner at Chambers Conlon & Hartwell (CC&H), where, in addition to the ASLRRA, he represented clients such as the National Railroad Construction & Maintenance Association (NRC, where he also served as President), the OneRail Coalition, and the American Railway Development Association. He has significant experience in freight rail, passenger rail, rail transit, and rail industry contractor and supplier legislative and regulatory issues, in addition to rail coalition and association management. He currently serves as a Board Member of the Short Line Safety Institute and Chairman of the Board of the OneRail Coalition. Mr. Baker is a native of Baltimore, MD, and a graduate of Rice University in Houston, TX. He lives on Capitol Hill in Washington, DC with his wife Sarah and two daughters Nora and Lila.

Jeffrey Baker
General Manager
KB Signaling
jeffrey.baker-kb@alstomgroup.com
(816) 674-1597

Jeff leads the KB Signaling business, combining the technologies and long history of General Railway Signal, Harmon Industries and GE Transportation Systems, supplying products and advanced technology throughout the world for both freight and passenger-carrying operators. Jeff has been with the company for over 28 years, serving in engineering, sales, strategy and executive management. In 1997, Jeff began as a systems engineer and has had various roles as program manager, product manager, engineering director, and vice president of sales, eventually moving to lead the business in 2020. Jeff serves as president of the Railway Systems Suppliers, Inc. trade association, is a member of the Institution of Railway Signal Engineers, holds 6 patents, and enjoys working with technology whenever possible. He earned his bachelor's degree in electrical engineering from Kansas State University, and his master's degree in engineering management from the University of Kansas.

Michael Barr
VP Treasurer, Investor Relations & Integrated Resource Planning
Norfolk Southern
michael.barr2@nscorp.com
(470) 230-4328

Michael Barr brings over two decades of experience in finance, investment management, and leadership across major financial institutions. His background includes senior roles at Neuberger Berman, Shockoe Capital, and Prudential Equity Group, where he developed a deep expertise in financial strategy, investment management, and client relations. He currently leads efforts to enhance investor relations and optimize the company's financial performance in addition to overseeing NS's integrated resource planning process, a key element of the company's forward-thinking strategy for sustainable growth. He also leads the sourcing team, responsible for the company's strategic supplier management program that optimizes supply chain performance. Barr joins NS after serving as Managing Director at Neuberger Berman, a global asset management firm, where he led industrial sector allocation and analysis within the firm's research portfolio. Throughout his career, Barr has worked closely with major transportation companies, including Norfolk Southern, CSX, and Union Pacific, gaining significant experience in transportation finance and industry dynamics. Barr holds a Bachelor of Arts in economics from the University of Virginia, where he developed the analytical foundation that has supported his success in the finance and investment sectors.

Kriss Beudjekian
Senior Director – Mechanial & Fuel
Norfolk Southern
kriss.beudjekian@nscorp.com
(678) 419-9738

Kriss Beudjekian is a results-driven supply chain leader with over 15 years of experience across Network Operations, Engineering, Mechanical, Procurement, and end-to-end Supply Chain Management within the railroad industry. He brings a strong enterprise perspective, connecting strategy to execution across both operational and corporate environments to deliver measurable business impact. In his current role, Kriss oversees Procurement and Supply Chain activities at Norfolk Southern, supporting the Mechanical and Fuel Operations pillars.

Curtis Bilow
Executive Vice President
Ames Construction
curtisbilow@amesco.com
(952) 435-7106

As executive vice president, Curtis provides corporate oversight and strategic leadership to deliver business solutions to Ames partners. His experience and innovative approaches drive business growth across all of Ames' markets and geographies. He directs and supports the business development team across all market segments to ensure that the Ames mission, history, reputation, culture and capabilities remain at the forefront of building strong business relationships. Curtis joined Ames Construction in 2005 as a project engineer in their Southwest Region and earned his Bachelor of Science in Construction Management from Ferris State University. He is a member of a variety of industry organizations, and executive committee member for the National Railroad Construction and Maintenance Association (NRC), as well as the chair of the Finance Committee.

Paul Bischler
Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer
BNSF Railway
paul.bischler@bnsf.com
(817) 352-2600

As executive vice president, Curtis provides corporate oversight and strategic leadership to deliver business solutions to Ames partners. His experience and innovative approaches drive business growth across all of Ames' markets and geographies. He directs and supports the business development team across all market segments to ensure that the Ames mission, history, reputation, culture and capabilities remain at the forefront of building strong business relationships. Curtis joined Ames Construction in 2005 as a project engineer in their Southwest Region and earned his Bachelor of Science in construction management from Ferris State University. He is a member of a variety of industry organizations, including the board and executive committee for the National Railroad Construction and Maintenance Association (NRC), as well as the chair of the Finance Committee.

Joe Bodzioch
Chief Estimator
K-Five Construction Corporation
joeb@k-five.net
(630) 257-5600

K-Five is a fourth-generation family owned and operated construction firm. K-Five has a proven history as experts in Class I Intermodal Facility construction and repairs including in Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Missouri and California. K-Five is one of Chicago's largest civil contractors, which has enabled the firm to establish a solid reputation working with both public and private customers. K-Five lives by its corporate mission statement: "The K-Five family will be world-class, innovative providers of infrastructure solutions, paving intimate relationships with customers and the industry through our valued employees."

Aaron Braithwaite
Vice President Strategic Operations
Cranemasters, Inc.
aaron.braithwaite@cranemasters.com
(804) 236-4900

Aaron Braithwaite was appointed vice president of track operations in October 2018. With 18 years in the railroad industry, he is tasked with overseeing all track maintenance and construction operations from the East Coast to the Midwest. His vast experience includes a tenure at Cranemasters and seven years serving as the superintendent of the Southwest Region for a prominent commuter transit system. A firm advocate for safety and efficiency, Aaron consistently ensures the delivery of high-quality services to our railroad clients, guaranteeing punctual service delivery.

Justin Broyles
President and Chief Executive Officer
R. J. Corman Railroad Group
justin.broyles@rjcorman.com
(859) 881-2441

Justin Broyles began with R. J. Corman in 2001, holding various leadership positions focusing on emergency services, storm response, construction, and national account management. After serving for three years at Patriot Rail as chief commercial officer, he rejoined R. J. Corman in 2018, becoming executive vice president, commercial affairs. In this role, he oversaw all commercial activity, including managing the marketing and sales teams, for R. J. Corman's 19 short line railroads. Justin was also responsible for Class I account management for all R. J. Corman companies and Storm Team efforts. With nearly 25 years of railroad industry experience, Justin has developed a robust background in corporate account management, rail-related services, new business development, negotiations, mergers & acquisitions, supply chain logistics, and growing strong client relationships. He holds a BS in business administration with an emphasis in marketing from Southern Illinois University. Justin holds several key positions in the transportation industry, serving as chair of the Surface Transportation Board's (STB) Railroad-Shipper Transportation Advisory Council (RSTAC) Board of Directors, Vice Chair of the American Short Line and Regional Railroad Association (ASLRRA), member of Short Line Caucuses of Norfolk Southern and BNSF, and Chair of the Short Line Safety Institute (SLSI).

Robert Bullock
Chief Corporate Affairs Officer
Florida East Coast Railway
robert.bullock@fecrwy.com
(904) 279-3157

Robert J. Bullock, Jr. serves as Chief Corporate Affairs Officer at Florida East Coast Railway, a Grupo México Transportes (GMXT) company. He leads government affairs, public policy, and external affairs for FEC, advancing the railroad's interests before federal and state policymakers on issues ranging from freight infrastructure investment to rail safety regulation. He also oversees human resources, labor relations, safety, and compliance across FEC and its affiliated entities, and works across the GMXT enterprise to align these functions with the company's international operations.

Michael Burns
Senior Vice President and Chief Legal Officer
CSX Transportation
michael_burns@csx.com
(904) 359-1735

Michael Burns is CSX's senior vice president, chief legal officer, and corporate secretary. Appointed in 2025, he oversees the company's legal and regulatory affairs, the corporate secretary's office, risk management, freight claims, police and infrastructure protection, environmental and hazardous materials, and audit functions.

Nick Caller
Executive Vice President Sales & Client Relations
Holman
nick.caller@holman.com
(856) 220-0530

Leveraging more than 25 years of international leadership experience, Nick serves as Holman's Executive Vice President of Sales & Client Relations, responsible for driving growth and ensuring the company's fleet management solutions align with evolving client needs. Since joining Holman in 2019, Nick has played an integral role in strengthening the company's sales organization and deepening client engagement across the business. Previously, Nick served as the Managing Director of Holman's fleet management operations in the United Kingdom, where he led all aspects of the business and contributed to the company's broader global expansion. Prior to Holman, he spent more than 12 years with HP/Hewlett Packard Enterprise in senior leadership roles, leading complex international teams, overseeing multi-billion-dollar procurement programs, and delivering large-scale transformation initiatives. Nick is known for building high-performing teams and maintaining a strong client-focused culture aligned with Holman's commitment to service excellence. He holds an HNC in Business and Finance as well as a Professional Diploma in Purchasing and Supply (MCIPS) from Hertfordshire College in the United Kingdom.

Ryan Cammack
Chief Operating Officer
Ferrovia, A Genesis Rail Company
rcammack@ferroviallc.com
(307) 399-0199

Ryan Cammack graduated from South Dakota State University in 2000 with a Bachelor of Arts in Animal Science and minors in chemistry and biology. He started his career working for Novartis/Syngenta where he stayed until joining the largest chemical provider to the railroad industry, Alligare, in 2007, where he headed the railroad business unit. In 2017, Cammack moved to the largest on-and off-track vegetation management company in the rail industry, Ferrovia, as chief operating officer.

Betsy Cantwell
President
GoRail
bcantwell@gorail.org
(202) 808-3233

Betsy Cantwell is President at GoRail. Since joining GoRail in 2015, Betsy has lead the organization's advocacy and communications strategy to build public and political support for freight rail. Her work spans earned media, digital campaigns, grassroots mobilization, and message development—aimed at making freight rail policy accessible and compelling to the communities it impacts most. Betsy has played a key role in evolving the organization's communications and expanding its reach across local and national audiences. Before GoRail, she worked as assistant director of public affairs at George Washington University's Elliott School of International Affairs. Her career has included a wide range of communications work, from media relations and publication design to event management and video production. She holds a B.A. in political communication and an M.A. in global communication from George Washington University. Betsy now resides in her home state of New Jersey with her husband and two sons, where they enjoy exploring the outdoors and playing with trains.

James Carey
Assistant Vice President - External Relations
Union Pacific
jwcarey@up.com
(202) 662-0125

James Carey is Assistant Vice President of External Relations for Union Pacific Railroad. Based in Washington, D.C., he represents the company before federal lawmakers and regulators on issues impacting Union Pacific, its employees, customers, shareholders, and communities. A graduate of Clark Atlanta University with a degree in Business Administration and Marketing, Carey began his Union Pacific career as a college intern and has spent the past 16 years in a variety of commercial and leadership roles. His Union Pacific background includes assignments in Omaha, Philadelphia, Los Angeles, Detroit, and Houston, as well as six years leading commodity-focused sales teams, most recently as General Director of Petrochemicals. Drawing on extensive operational, commercial, and industry experience, Carey works to advance policies that support a safe, efficient, and growing freight rail network while strengthening Union Pacific's role in driving economic growth and connecting communities across the country.

Jonathan Carnes
Chief Executive Officer
Wheeling & Lake Erie Railway
jcarnes@wlerail.com
(412) 742-1035

Jonathan Carnes serves as CEO of "The Wheeling," which includes the Wheeling & Lake Erie Railway, the former Transtar railroads, and all affiliated companies. In February 2012, Jonathan joined Transtar as General Manager, later serving as President of Transtar and its railroad subsidiaries with U. S. Steel until July 2021, when U. S. Steel sold Transtar. Jonathan remained Transtar's President through the sale process and was named CEO in February 2023. Jonathan was instrumental in acquiring the Wheeling & Lake Erie Railway, the largest regional railroad in the United States, and has continued as CEO of the combined companies since January of 2026. Prior to joining Transtar, Mr. Carnes held various roles of increasing responsibility, most recently as President and Chairman at the Terminal Railroad Association of St. Louis and previously as General Manager at NKCR (an OmniTRAX Inc. company) and various positions at CSX. He holds two bachelor's from the University of North Florida and an MBA from the University of Pittsburgh, Katz Graduate School of Business.

Kayla Carr
Lead Project Coordinator
Anderzack-Pitzen Construction, Inc
kaylacarr@wecandigit.com
(419) 644-2347

Kayla Carr is the Lead Project Coordinator for Anderzack-Pitzen Construction, where she has been a dedicated team member for over 14 years. In her role, she coordinates projects from bidding through completion, working closely with clients, contractors, railroads, and project teams to ensure successful project execution and strong customer relationships. Throughout her career at APC, Kayla has developed extensive experience in project coordination, contract administration, and client communication within the railroad and construction industries. She enjoys building lasting industry relationships and looks forward to connecting with both familiar colleagues and new contacts throughout the GoRail event.

Bonnie Carter
Vice President, Operations
GoRail
bcarter@gorail.org
(703) 731-1712

Bonnie Carter leads finance, administration, and development at GoRail, ensuring organizational efficiency and strategic growth. As part of her development role, she plans and executes donor events that celebrate the vital support of the rail suppliers and contractors who champion GoRail's mission. She also oversees human resources, fostering a positive workplace culture and providing the support that helps keep the GoRail team connected and thriving.

Eric Carter
Vice President & General Manager, Birmingham Rail
A. Stucki Company
eric.carter@stucki.com
(803) 394-8563

Eric Carter serves as Vice President and General Manager of Birmingham Rail, a product brand of A. Stucki Company providing new and reconditioned rail, turnout, and track materials to railroad and industrial markets. He oversees operations across multiple locations, including Birmingham, Alabama; Houston, Texas; and Youngstown, Ohio, with responsibility for operational performance, customer satisfaction, and long-term growth. With nearly 20 years of experience in the rail industry, Carter brings a strong combination of strategic leadership and operational expertise. Prior to joining Stucki, he was Chief Executive Officer of Geismar North America, where he led business development and commercial strategy for a leading supplier of railroad equipment. Earlier in his career, he served as Vice President at Protran Technology, delivering safety and technology solutions for rail and transportation markets. Carter holds an MBA and a Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering from the University of South Carolina's Darla Moore School of Business. He also serves on the Board of Directors for the Railway Engineering–Maintenance Suppliers Association (REMSA). Known for his collaborative, results-driven leadership style, Carter is focused on building high-performing teams and advancing Birmingham Rail's market impact.

Steven Casstevens
Board of Directors
Coalition Against Bigger Trucks (CABT)
buckleupcat@comcast.net
(847) 815-3931

Steven Casstevens is a retired police chief with over 46 years in law enforcement. He is the Past President of the Illinois Association of Chiefs of Police and also the Past President of the International Association of Chiefs of Police. He serves on the Law Enforcement Board for the Coalition Against Bigger Trucks and also serves on CABT's Board of Directors.

Jim Connell
Vice President and General Manager
American Concrete Products
jconnell@amconco.com
(402) 331-5775

Jim Connell is the Vice President of American Concrete Products and the General Manager of the Omaha, NE plant. ACP has production locations in Omaha, NE, Dallas, TX, and Kansas City, KS that focus on producing precast railroad products including bridge, box culvert, grade crossings, and signal foundations. Jim earned a Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering from the University of Nebraska - Lincoln in 2003.

Mike Cory
Cief Operating Officer
CSX Transportation
mike_cory@csx.com
(904) 319-1553

Mike Cory is Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, responsible for overseeing CSX's operations strategy and coordinating all aspects of the company's Transportation, Mechanical and Engineering department performance. Cory joined the company in September 2023 after a 39-year career with the Canadian National Railway, where he contributed to establishing scheduled railroading as a transformative operating model for the rail industry.

Sylvain Couture
Vice President & General Manager, Railway Ties Division
Stella-Jones Corporation
scouture@stella-jones.com
(437) 224-7460

Sylvain Couture is the Vice-President and General Manager of the Railway Ties Division at Stella-Jones. He oversees procurement, operations, sales and logistics for the division across North America. With over 20 years of experience at Stella-Jones, Sylvain worked in different product categories at Stella-Jones, specializing in operational efficiencies, network optimization and project management. Sylvain holds a Bachelor of Engineering in Chemical from Sherbrooke University in Quebec, Canada. He's a board member of Wood Preservation Canada. Outside of work, he spends time with the family and likes to run in the morning.

Fred Cozzi
Vice President Sales
Siemens Mobility Inc.
fred.cozzi@siemens.com
(502) 712-2962

Fred Cozzi has been a leader in the rail industry for over 25 years. His commitment to this industry and the products that he has introduced to the market, have enabled the railroads to operate safer and more reliably.

Keith Creasy
Vice President, Locomotive Platform Leader
Wabtec
keith.creasy@wabtec.com
(814) 969-9208

Kevin cross functional role connects Wabtec's new locomotive design and manufacturing to the performance and reliability of their in-service fleet of 1,300+ T4 locomotives operating in North America. Kevin has been with Wabtec for 17 years.

Wade Currens
Vice President, Tactical Operations
Cranemasters, Inc.
wade.currens@cranemasters.com
(804) 317-5025

Wade Currens joined the Cranemasters team in 2019. Wade has 35 years of experience in the rail industry and has excelled in the specialized skills needed to complete a variety of projects. His years of experience allow him to lead his team in providing excellent service to the customer's complex and diverse needs. His responsibilities include providing leadership and operational excellence as well as focused performance for customers and safety. Wade is excited to lead his team to support our customers and Cranemasters to excel as leaders in the industry.

Kenny Dailey
Director Marketing
Stella-Jones Corporation
kdailey@stella-jones.com
(205) 288-4330

Completing his 49th year in the railroad supply industry, Kenny most enjoys working with the next generation of railroaders, both supply and end users. He believes the future for our industry looks very bright for both with the talent he works with. Kenny's focus is the wooden crosstie and related timber segment, serving Stella-Jones

Corporation as director marketing, primarily Class 1 railroads. He is a big fan of Alabama football and is a member of the Railway Tie Association as a 3 term past president. When not golfing, Kenny enjoys family pool time and fishing off the Alabama Gulf Coast at his home away from home.

Nick D'Alessandro
Head of NAM Freight Products
Siemens Mobility
nick.dalessandro@siemens.com
(724) 393-4307

Nick D'Alessandro leads Siemens Mobility's Rail Infrastructure North America Products business across level crossing, signaling, and rail safety solutions.

Greg Dalpe
Executive Vice President, Freight Car Services
Progress Rail
gdalpe@progressrail.com
(860) 333-4625

Greg Dalpe is executive vice president of freight car services, with responsibility for freight car, wheels/axles/bearings/parts, recycling and leasing for Progress Rail. Greg has 20 years of transformational leadership experience across industrial manufacturing segments. Prior to joining Progress Rail, he spent a decade in various leadership roles in operations, sales and marketing at Knorr-Bremse (KB). Before KB, he worked in private equity, leading operations and quality with Davis-Standard, Kenney Manufacturing and SMTC Manufacturing. Greg holds a bachelor's degree in chemistry from Rhode Island College in Providence, R.I., and a master's degree in operations design and leadership from Worcester Polytechnic Institute in Worcester, Mass. He is a Certified Lean Six Sigma Black Belt. As a civic and philanthropic volunteer, Greg is an executive board member of The Children's Home of Jefferson County, N.Y.

Sam Doerr
Executive Vice President, Infrastructure
Progress Rail
sdoerr@progressrail.com
(814) 873-8829

Sam Doerr serves as executive vice president of infrastructure for Progress Rail, where he leads the company's global track and signaling business. In this role, Sam is responsible for driving strategic growth, operational excellence, and innovation across the infrastructure division. Sam joined Progress Rail in 2023 as senior vice president of locomotive product and program management. During his tenure, he played a key role in shaping product strategy, strengthening customer value propositions, and improving program execution. His leadership enhanced the commercial pipeline and advanced project management within the locomotive business. With more than 15 years of experience in business development and product management in the rail industry, Sam brings deep expertise and a forward-looking vision to his current role. He holds a bachelor's degree in Industrial Distribution and Technology from Purdue University and an MBA from Duke University.

Brad Donaldson Partner
PwC
brad.donaldson@pwc.com
(312) 925-2616

Brad Donaldson is a Partner within PwC's Finance Transformation practice where he focuses on the Travel and Logistics industry as well as Industrial Products industry.

Shasta Duffey
Chief Commercial Officer
Hulcher Services, Inc.
shasta.duffey@hulcher.com
(269) 753-4957

Shasta Duffey serves as Chief Commercial Officer of Hulcher, bringing more than 20 years of executive leadership across 14 short line railroad properties and deep commercial relationships with short line and Class I railroads throughout North America. In her role, she leads Hulcher's commercial strategy, customer growth, business development, and market expansion across the railroad and industrial sectors. Prior to Hulcher, Shasta held VP and SVP leadership roles at Watco Companies and Lake State Railway, where she led teams recognized with multiple Business Development Awards and Short Line and Regional Railroad of the Year honors while delivering significant traffic and revenue growth. Shasta has built her career on turning strong relationships into long-term growth partnerships and developing commercial organizations that consistently outperform their markets. She has served on five industry boards, chaired the ASLRRA Marketing Committee, and participates in Railroad Day on the Hill advocacy in Washington, D.C. At Hulcher, Shasta is focused on strengthening customer partnerships, expanding capabilities, and building a high-performing commercial organization positioned to make Hulcher the first call when railroads and industries need safe, dependable emergency response and industrial services.

Katie Farmer
President and Chief Executive Officer
BNSF Railway
katie.farmer@bnsf.com
(817) 352-1215

Katie Farmer was named president and chief executive officer for BNSF Railway in 2021, and also leads BNSF's Board of Directors. Prior to her current role, she served as executive vice president, operations since September 2018, where she oversaw the entire operations organization; before that, she served as vice president, service design and transportation support since July 2017. Prior to her operations roles, she led BNSF's largest business unit as group vice president, consumer products. Katie began her career with the Burlington Northern in 1992 as a management trainee in Fort Worth, TX and has held leadership positions in every major function of the company including operations, marketing, and finance.

Rob Finch
Vice President Domestic Sales
Direct Chassis Link, Inc. (DCLI)
rob.finch@dcli.com
(904) 607-4232

Rob Finch is the vice president of domestic sales at Direct ChassisLink, Inc. (DCLI), a premier transportation company based in Charlotte, NC. With prior railroad experience, Finch now leads a team that capitalizes on new business trends to meet growing customer demand for domestic 53' chassis within the intermodal industry. His deep understanding of commercial sales and trend analysis – paired with first-hand knowledge of rail operations – make him uniquely qualified to advance new initiatives and services on behalf of DCLI. Prior to joining DCLI Rob spent 15 years at CSX helping lead teams within the sales and marketing and operations departments. While at CSX he led an initiative to drive alignment between cross-functional teams and launched new measurement systems, onboard locomotive technologies, and other tools to better serve CSX customers. He managed multiple rail facilities while ensuring consistent, reliable service. In 2009, Rob was recognized by CSX with a Charmain's Award of Excellence, the highest honor for CSX employees, in part for sales and marketing responsibilities that resulted in incremental revenue growth of $17 million. Rob holds a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Georgia and a master's degree in business administration from the University of Florida.

Brenda Fitzgerald
Senior Director Client Services
Corpay Lodging
brenda.fitzgerald@clclodging.com
(832) 610-0493

Brenda Fitzgerald is the senior director of client services at Corpay Lodging, managing relationships with the company's largest enterprise clients. She serves as contract-holder for high-volume accounts across Class 1 freight and passenger rail, as well as environmental, industrial, and emergency services—including utilities and disaster response organizations. Brenda began her hospitality career in hotel operations with Starwood and Marriott, leading teams that supported workforce clients. This background provides her with a practical, customer-focused approach to client services. Since joining Corpay Lodging through acquisition, Brenda has leveraged her industry expertise to strengthen legacy operations and drive innovation through tailored solutions. She has led platform transitions for four major clients and contributes directly to product development, helping shape technologies that enhance visibility and operational efficiency.

Mark George
President & CEO
Norfolk Southern Corporation
mark.george@nscorp.com
(860) 869-0092

Mark R. George is President and CEO of Norfolk Southern Corporation, a leading freight transportation provider serving the majority of the U.S. population and manufacturing base. Under his leadership, the company emphasizes operational excellence and customer-centric innovation, moving approximately 7 million carloads annually and helping customers avoid 15 million tons of carbon emissions each year. With over 30 years of experience in financial management and strategy, George previously served as Norfolk Southern's Chief Financial Officer after joining the company in 2019. Before that, he held key leadership roles at United Technologies Corporation and its subsidiaries, including Global CFO for Otis Elevator and Carrier Corporation. George serves on the boards of Trane Technologies and Junior Achievement of Georgia. He holds a bachelor's degree in finance from Central Connecticut State University and an MBA from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute.

Rand Ghayad
Senior Vice President, Policy and Economics
Association of American Railroads
rghayad@aar.org
(617) 581-7523

Rand Ghayad is Senior Vice President of Policy and Economics and Chief Economist at the Association of American Railroads, where he leads the organization's economics, research, and data strategy. He oversees the development of economic analysis, industry research, and data products that inform public policy, support member railroads, and strengthen the freight rail industry's role in the North American economy. His work focuses on translating complex data into actionable insights that help industry leaders, policymakers, and stakeholders make better decisions and advance evidence-based policy.

Arielle Giordano
Vice President, Government and Industry Affairs
Genesee & Wyoming
arielle.giordano@gwrr.com
(202) 823-3560

Arielle Giordano is Vice President of Government and Industry Affairs at Genesee & Wyoming. She is responsible for managing G&W's government affairs strategy and team at the federal, state, and local levels. Prior to joining G&W, Giordano was Assistant Vice President of US Government Affairs for Canadian Pacific Kansas City. Before joining CP in 2018, she served as Counsel for the US House of Representatives, Transportation and Infrastructure Committee, Subcommittee on Railroads, Pipelines, and Hazardous Materials under former Chair Bill Shuster. While attending law school, Giordano worked for the U.S. Senate Committee on the Judiciary, under Chair Chuck Grassley. Giordano holds a J.D. from the Catholic University of America, Columbus School of Law in Washington, DC and a B.A. in political science and history from Monmouth University in West Long Branch, NJ.

Jeremy Givens
Vice President Mechanical
Union Pacific Railroad
jrgivens@up.com
(402) 544-4029

Jeremy has 30 years in the rail industry, all in the operating department. He started his rail career in the mechanical department and has held positions at Union Pacific's dispatching center and most recently in their transportation operations team. Jeremy currently supports the safe and efficient operations of Union Pacific's mechanical car and locomotive departments.

Spence Glotzbach
Vice President - Procurement and Supply Chain
CSX Transportation
spence_glotzbach@csx.com
(478) 960-7233

Spence Glotzbach was promoted to vice president – procurement and supply chain at CSX earlier this year after having served as head of procurement and supply chain since December 2021. He has been with CSX for fourteen years with prior roles in finance, marketing, and mechanical procurement.

Kari Gonzales
President and Chief Executive Officer
MxV Rail
karigonzales@aar.com
(719) 251-3123

Kari Gonzales is president and chief executive officer of MxV Rail, the world's premier rail research advisory. Since taking the role in 2021, Kari has spearheaded the company's transformation from TTCI to MxV Rail. Kari has been a part of MxV Rail, a subsidiary of the Association of American Railroads since 2000, advancing from a student intern to a research engineer, and transitioning to vice president and chief financial officer before assuming her current role. She leads the MxV Rail team with the advantage of 20 years of service and experience in the rail industry. She earned a Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering from Colorado School of Mines, holds a Master of Business Administration from Regis University, Denver. During her time as an engineer, Kari was the inaugural candidate for the MxV Rail Railroad Exchange Program, spending a year at BNSF Railway's Texas headquarters as a visiting professional. She was recognized by Progressive Railroading magazine as a 2014 "Rising Star." In 2023, Kari was named the League of Railway Women's Railway Woman of the Year. In addition, Kari serves on a number of community and industry boards.

Rodney Gordon
General Manager, Service Delivery and Support
Conrail
rodney.gordon@conrail.com
(856) 231-2004

Rodney Gordon joined Conrail in 2013 as assistant superintendent of operations responsible for field operations. In 2017, he transitioned to service delivery and support, which includes responsibility for their dispatch center, customer service center, service design, joint facilities, industrial development, and auto terminals. Prior to joining Conrail, Rodney was regional vice president for Watco Companies East Region, which included operations in Michigan, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Alabama. In this position, he served as the leader for the region overseeing operations, finance, mechanical and engineering forces. During his time at Watco (2008-2013) he was responsible for the acquisition/startup of several short line railroads. Prior to Watco, Rodney worked for Canadian National Railroad (1998-2008) in various management positions starting as general yard coordinator in Pontiac, MI and had progressed to division superintendent in Battle Creek, MI by the time he left for Watco in 2008. Rodney is a graduate of the University of Michigan. He also is past president and currently serves as a member of the Executive Committee of the American Association of Railroad Superintendents.

Brian Gorton
President and Chief Operating Officer
Conrail
brian.gorton@conrail.com
(856) 231-2003

Brian E. Gorton joined Conrail in 1987 as a conductor. Mr. Gorton advanced to the position of assistant terminal superintendent before departing Conrail prior to CSXT and Norfolk Southern's acquisition of Conrail in 1998. After his departure from Conrail, he worked at the Union Pacific Railroad where he held various positions in the transportation department, including general manager of UP's Houston and Gulf Coast service units during his tenure. On April 19, 2021, Brian rejoined Conrail and was appointed president and chief operating officer of Conrail Shared Assets, headquartered in Mount Laurel, NJ, bringing with him over 30 years of railroad experience and expertise. Brian has a bachelors degree in business management from Phoenix University.

Jay Gowan
President
Omaha Track
jgowan@omahatrack.com
(803) 351-0763

Jay Gowan is the President of Omaha Track. A third-generation railroader, Jay has been working in the industry since 1994. He got his start with the Ohio Central Railroad as a track laborer. After his stay with the Ohio Central, he held a sales & estimating position with Atlas Railroad Construction Company. Moving from Atlas, Jay spent five years with Hartford & Associates, a manufacturing representative company as a Territory Sales Manager. Following this position, Jay served as the Vice President of Operations at Roadway Worker Services, a welding & track contractor. After RWS, Jay spent eleven years with Harsco Rail as a Vice President leading operations, sales and business strategy development in North America, South America and Australia. Follow Harsco, Jay spent eight years with RailWorks as Senior Vice President North American Track. Jay graduated from the University of Cincinnati with a double major in Business Management and Marketing with an International Certificate.

Ted Greener
Senior Vice President, Communications
Association of American Railroads
tgreener@aar.org
(202) 639-2349

Ted Greener is SVP for Communications at the AAR. He previously served as VP, Public Affairs. Ted works closely with the GoRail team on the industry's advocacy initiatives.

David Grun
Director Sales, Railroads
Rocky Mountain Steel Mills
david.grun@rockymountainsteelmills.com
(719) 568-5190

David Grun has more than a decade of experience in the railroad industry and has served as Director of Sales – Railroads for the past five years at Rocky Mountain Steel Mills. In addition to his professional responsibilities, he currently serves as Chairman of the Membership Committee for the National Railroad Construction and Maintenance Association (NRC), where he helps support engagement and growth within the rail industry. He also serves as VP Membership and Marketing for the North American Maintenance Railway Club (NAMRC). Prior to entering the rail sector, David earned a degree in Finance from the University of Minnesota Duluth. He is passionate about building strong industry relationships and advancing rail infrastructure solutions across North America. Outside of work, David enjoys spending time outdoors and pursuing a variety of outdoor recreational activities.

Neel Gupta
Director Enterprise Resources - Intermodal
Norfolk Southern
suneel.gupta@nscorp.com
(470) 728-4814

Neel has been with Norfolk Southern since April 2020. Starting in May 2025, Neel joined the enterprise resources department as director intermodal, overseeing purchasing for Norfolk Southern's intermodal business. Prior to enterprise resources, Neel was a member of the treasury/investor relations department as director investor relations. Before that, Neel served as assistant deputy general counsel in the corporate division of the NS law department, primarily supporting the sourcing, cybersecurity, and treasury departments. Prior to joining NS, Neel was a transportation and product liability litigation partner in the Atlanta office of Baker Donelson.

Nick Halmrast
Government Affairs
TTX Company
nick.halmrast@ttx.com
(704) 961-6811

Nick Halmrast manages Government Affairs for TTX Company, a leading provider of railcars and freight car management services to the North American rail industry. In this role, he develops and advances the company's legislative and regulatory priorities at the federal, state, and local levels. Prior to joining TTX in 2024, Nick served in the offices of U.S. Senators Thom Tillis (R-NC) and Richard Burr (R-NC), where he advised on a range of public policy issues, including transportation policy and federal appropriations. A Charlotte native, Nick holds a bachelor's degree in finance from Miami University and serves on the Charlotte Regional Business Alliance's Young Professionals Board.

Jennifer Hamann
Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer
Union Pacific Railroad
jhamann@up.com
(402) 544-3295

Jennifer Hamann was appointed executive vice president and chief financial officer (CFO) January 1, 2020. She is responsible for managing all facets of Union Pacific's financial activities, controls and policies including accounting, tax, real estate, investor relations, treasury, audit, and capital planning. She further assumed responsibilities for strategic sourcing, inventory management, warehousing, and logistics effective Sept. 1, 2023. As CFO, Hamann also serves on the Grupo Ferroviario Mexicano and TTX Company boards of directors. Hamann began her Union Pacific career in 1992 as a member of the corporation's audit staff. In 1998, she moved to the railroad's human resources department, holding various management positions. Hamann joined the corporate treasury group in April 2002, when she was named assistant vice president-investor relations. In April 2011, she was named general auditor of the corporate audit staff. Hamann moved to marketing and sales as vice president and general manager-automotive in February 2016, a position she maintained until returning to finance as vice president-planning and analysis in October 2017. She was named senior vice president-finance in April 2019. Prior to joining Union Pacific, Hamann received a Master of Business Administration from the University of Nebraska at Omaha (UNO). She also has fulfilled the requirements and examinations necessary to receive a Certified Public Accountant certificate.

James R. Hansen
Chief Commercial Officer - Freight Rail Systems
Herzog
jrhansen@herzog.com
(816) 385-8233

Jim Hansen's 40+ years of rail industry experience stretches back to the mid-1970s, where he began his career in the maintenance-of-way welding department for the Burlington Northern (BN) Railroad. After more than a decade at BN, he assumed a sales position with ESCO Equipment Service Company, rising to vice president of national sales. Hansen then served four years as the North American sales manager for Stanley Railroad Products. In 2007, he transitioned into business development for North America at RailWorks Corporation, where he served as vice president for nine years. Hansen has been the president of the North American Maintenance Railway Club for more than 25 years. Under his leadership, the membership of the club has grown from about 100 to over 600 members today. He also serves on the executive committee of the National Railroad Construction and Maintenance Association as the secretary/treasurer and holds a leadership position on the Association of American Railroads associate advisory board.

Paul Hedrick
Senior Vice President, Finance and Administration, and Treasurer
Association of American Railroads
phedrick@aar.org
(202) 639-2118

Paul oversees AAR's day-to-day financial, accounting, huma resources, IT and property management areas. Mr. Hedrick joined AAR from the Endocrine Society, where he served as Chief Financial Officer. He led the organization's strategic, financial and capital budgets, and information technology planning processes.

Alan Hollis
VP Rail & Emerging Markets
Orion Steel
alan.hollis@orionsteel.com
(312) 852-5565

Alan Hollis has more than 30 years of experience developing business plans that support profitable growth and advance new market strategies. He currently serves as Vice President of Rail and Emerging Markets. Before joining Orion Steel, Alan held several executive-level positions across multiple industries, most recently serving as President of Charger Industries, Inc., where he restructured operations and improved efficiencies, making the company more profitable and competitive. Alan holds Bachelor of Science degrees in Physics and Mathematics from the University of Houston–Clear Lake and has completed executive education programs through Texas A&M University.

Onna Houck
Vice President, Chief Legal Officer
Iowa Interstate Railroad, LLC
obhouck@iaisrr.com
(319) 298-5405

Onna Houck is Vice President, Chief Legal Officer at Iowa Interstate Railroad, LLC. Prior to joining Iowa Interstate in 2014, Onna clerked for Iowa's Second Judicial District and later practiced law at Cutler & Donahoe, LLP in Sioux Falls, South Dakota. There, she litigated FELA, grade crossing, property damage, contract, and employment matters on behalf of a regional railroad in state and federal courts throughout Iowa, South Dakota, and Minnesota. She currently serves as board chair of the Iowa Legal Aid Foundation. Onna earned her B.A. from Kenyon College, Gambier, Ohio and, in 2004, graduated from the University of Iowa College of Law, with distinction. Onna is currently licensed to practice law in Iowa, Illinois, and South Dakota.

Matt Igoe
President & Chief Commercial Officer – Railroads
R.J. Corman Railroad Company
matthew.igoe@rjcorman.com
(859) 881-2441

Matt Igoe joined R. J. Corman Railroad Company as President & Chief Operating Officer in 2026. In the role, he leads transportation, mechanical, engineering, and network performance across the company's short lines and industrial switching operations. Matt has over 27 years of experience in railroad operations, most recently serving as Executive Vice President of Operations at BNSF Railway. Before joining BNSF in 1998 as a management trainee, he served as an officer in the U.S. Army. Matt holds a Bachelor of Arts in Biology from Canisius College and an MBA from Northwestern University's Kellogg School of Management.

Ian Jefferies
President and Chief Executive Officer
Association of American Railroads
ijefferies@aar.org
(202) 639-2400

As the Association of American Railroads (AAR's) president and chief executive officer, Jefferies advocates for and works with member railroads to ensure the continued viability of America's railroad industry. Prior to assuming the role on January 1, 2019, Jefferies was the senior vice president of AAR's government affairs where he led the development, promotion and implementation of legislative priorities for the AAR.

Before joining the AAR, Jefferies cultivated more than a decade of experience working within government. From 2009 to 2013, Jefferies served as a senior policy advisor to the chairman of the U.S. Senate Committee on Commerce, Science and Transportation. In this role, Jefferies provided policy guidance on a host of transportation issues, including railroad economic regulation, rail safety and passenger rail. Jefferies also led the successful development, negotiation and reauthorization of major infrastructure legislation and managed the successful conference of Committee legislation relating to the 2012 surface transportation reauthorization law, MAP 21. Jefferies began his career in government serving as a senior advisor to the mayor of Lexington, Kentucky, before transitioning to the federal government. Prior to serving in the United States Senate, he worked for the U.S. Department of Transportation, Office of the Inspector General and the U.S. Government Accountability Office. In these roles, Jefferies led program reviews on a variety of issues including infrastructure development, international trade, major weapon systems acquisition and federal contracting. Ian received his Master of Science in Public Policy and Management from Carnegie Mellon University in Pittsburgh, PA and his Bachelor of Science in Economics from the University of Kentucky in Lexington, KY.

Troy Jones
Assistant Vice President, Supply Chain
Union Pacific Railroad
dtjones@up.com
(402) 544-0877

Troy currently serves as AVP strategic sourcing, responsible for the procurement of Union Pacific's Equipment, Materials, and Services. For the past 21 years, he has worked for Union Pacific in Supply Chain, Mechanical and Continuous Improvement departments. Troy holds a Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering from the University of Colorado and a Master of Business Administration from the University of Texas McCombs School of Business. During the early part of his career, Troy held plant management and engineering roles in the Automotive and Aerospace industries.

Nate Kaplan
State Director
GoRail
nkaplan@gorail.org
(310) 428-5318

With a decade of experience working in the rail industry, Nate covers the Western United States and parts of New England for GoRail. His background in local, state, and federal government makes him an effective transportation and public policy leader. He served as a legislative aide in the Massachusetts State Senate before working in Boston's Trial Court system. At the age of 24, Kaplan ran for the office of state representative in his hometown in Central Massachusetts and after a landslide victory, he became the youngest candidate in that district's history to receive a major party nomination. Kaplan's passion for politics continued to thrive after he relocated to Los Angeles. He founded a 501c3 nonprofit, SeePolitical, to educate the electorate by producing and distributing unbiased animations to heighten civic awareness and explain the electoral process. Kaplan received a master's degree in public policy at the University of Southern California while working as a communications director, legislative director, and district director for the Los Angeles City Council, where he worked on issues of transportation, social policy, economic development, land use, public safety, sustainable cities, affordable housing, and policies to improve the quality of life for communities in California. As a seasoned public affairs professional, Kaplan is often invited to guest lecture and moderate panels on a host of transportation related topics. He resides in Colorado.

Ed Kendall
Associate General Counsel and Corporate Secretary
Association of American Railroads
ekendall@aar.org
(202) 639-2514

In his role as associate general counsel, compliance and corporate secretary for the Association of American Railroads (AAR), Ed is responsible for ensuring that the AAR and one of its two wholly-owned subsidiaries, Transportation Technology Center, Inc. (d/b/a MxV Rail), are in compliance with applicable federal, state and local laws. He provides advice and counsel regarding employment law, employee benefits law, political law, privacy, ethics and compliance related matters. As corporate secretary, Ed serves as an officer of AAR and MxV Rail with responsibility for reviewing, preparing and distributing board materials.

Chris Kramer
Chief Product Officer
Corpay Lodging
chris.kramer@corpay.com
(770) 490-9666

Chris Kramer is the Chief Product Officer of Corpay Lodging. Chris joined Corpay in July 2025. He owns the product roadmap for Lodging which is focused on delivering business value and innovation our rail customers. Prior to joining Corpay, Chris spent 15+ years in technology, sales, and product roles within the financial services industry. Chris currently resides with his wife and two children in Atlanta, GA.

Jennifer Krug-McNaughton
Executive Vice President / Co-Owner
K-Five Construction Corporation
jenniferk@k-five.net
(630) 257-5600

K-Five is a fourth-generation family owned and operated construction firm. K-Five has a proven history as experts in Class I intermodal facility construction and repairs including in Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Missouri and California. K-Five is one of Chicago's largest civil contractors, which has enabled the firm to establish a solid reputation working with both public and private customers. K-Five lives by its corporate Mission Statement: "The K-Five family will be world-class, innovative providers of infrastructure solutions, paving intimate relationships with customers and the industry through our valued employees."

Bob Ledoux
Senior Vice President
Florida East Coast Railway, LLC
robert.ledoux@fecrwy.com
(904) 279-3111

Robert Ledoux is senior vice president, general counsel and corporate secretary for Florida East Coast Railway. In this capacity, Bob is responsible for managing legal, environmental, risk management, and, security. With more than 30 years of legal and management experience in corporate law and business and transportation transactions, Bob currently serves on the executive committee of the American Shortline and Regional Railroad Association, on the board of the Association of American Railroads, and as chair of the Broward MPO Freight Transportation Advisory Committee and the Florida Department of Transportation Freight Advisory Committee. Prior to joining FECR, Ledoux worked at CSX Transportation for nine years in various legal positions including assistant general counsel for public project initiatives, engineering, passenger services, and intermodal. He graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from the University of New Hampshire, a Juris Doctorate from George Mason University, and a Master of Business Administration from Virginia Tech. Bob is a member of the Virginia State Bar, the Maryland State Bar, the Florida State Bar and the American Corporate Counsel Association.

Jackie Leggett
Accountant
GoRail
jleggett@gorail.org
(202) 808-3230

Jackie Leggett is the Staff Accountant at GoRail, responsible for preparing Journal Entries, Payroll, Taxes and other duties as required. Works with outside Accountant in preparing monthly financials. Her work supports GoRail's mission by maintaining sound Accounting Practices.

Jason Leone
SVP, Client Engagement & Growth
Accomodations Plus International
jason.leone@apiglobalsolutions.com
(516) 512-2989

Jason Leone is with Accommodations Plus International (API), where he focuses on client engagement and strategic partnerships. With a background spanning operations, product management, and professional services, Jason brings a well-rounded perspective to solving complex challenges across the transportation industry. He has led cross-functional teams and initiatives aimed at improving operational performance, enhancing crew experiences, and delivering measurable value. In his current role, Jason works closely with clients to bridge the gap between technology solutions and real-world operations, ensuring API's products and services align with evolving business needs. He is passionate about driving innovation, improving efficiency, and helping organizations translate strategy into execution.

Larry Lloyd
Assistant Vice President - US Government Affairs CPKC
larry.lloyd@cpkcr.com
(224) 373-1746

Canadian Pacific Kansas City (CPKC) railway is founded in precision and built for growth. As CPKC's AVP of US Government Affairs, Larry Lloyd is responsible for all of CPKC's US government affairs initiatives at the federal, state and local level to promote business and policy objectives and serves on the Executive Committee. Larry is a longtime advocate for the world's best freight rail network as previously the lead for CN Railway's US state/local government affairs efforts as well as the Midwest Field Director for GoRail. Larry is also in his 24th year of service to the nation with the US Army.

Jay Lusson
Director of Estimating Anderzack-Pitzen Construction, Inc.
jlusson@wecandigit.com
(708) 932-1752

Jay Lusson has over 21 years of experience in the railroad construction industry, specializing in both track construction and civil construction. Jay is attending this event on behalf of Anderzack-Pitzen Construction to connect with industry professionals, strengthen existing relationships, and develop new business opportunities with current and prospective clients.

Drew Marrs
Assistant Vice President, Government Relations
Norfolk Southern
drew.marrs@nscorp.com
(202) 675-8208

Since 2010, Drew has worked a member of the Norfolk Southern government relations department with a focus on federal affairs, grassroots advocacy and political programs. He currently serves on the board of directors of Virginia21, a nonpartisan advocacy organization for Virginia's college students as well as a member of the National Association of Manufacturers Transportation Working Group. In 2025, Marrs took on the role of director on the GoRail Board of Directors. He is a two-time graduate of Virginia Tech.

Andy Mathiesen
Assistant Vice President Strategic Sourcing
BNSF Railway
andrew.mathiesen@bnsf.com
(817) 352-2263

Andy Mathiesen is the assistant vice president of strategic sourcing for BNSF Railway, a Berkshire Hathaway company, and one of North America's leading freight transportation companies. In his role, he leads sourcing, procurement, supply chain, and crew hauling functions in support of BNSF's operations in mechanical and transportation. He earned his undergraduate degree in finance from Texas A&M University as well as his Master of Business Administration from Texas Christian University.

Aaron Matthews
Vice President, Sales
TrinityRail
Aaron.matthews@trin.net
(945) 985-9506

Aaron Matthews is Vice President, Sales at Trinity Rail. A highly experienced leader who has fostered growing relationships, executed long term strategies, and developed new business channels in challenging environments, Matthews currently leads the strategic growth and retention of key Class 1 railroad relationships.

Mary McKeller
Director of Digital Communications
GoRail
mmckeller@gorail.org
(202) 794-8182

Mary McKeller is Director of Digital Communications at GoRail, where she leads the organization's digital strategy and supports advocacy efforts that build public understanding of freight rail and its role in the nation's economy. Since joining GoRail in 2025, she has managed the organization's website, social media platforms, newsletters, and digital campaigns, helping connect stakeholders, advocates, and policymakers with issues affecting the freight rail industry. In her role, Mary develops communications strategies and public affairs materials that advance GoRail's mission and support its advocacy objectives. She works closely with industry partners and coalition members to communicate the value of freight rail, grow engagement with grassroots advocates in Rail Champions, and expand the organization's reach through data-driven digital outreach. Before joining GoRail, Mary worked in the chamber world, where she built experience in public relations, advocacy, and community engagement. She holds a B.A. in Political Science and Rhetoric and Communication Studies from the University of Richmond and an M.A. in Rhetoric and Philosophy of Communication from Duquesne University, where her studies focused on communication ethics, community building, and civic engagement. A native of Brevard, North Carolina, Mary is passionate about using communications to connect people with the issues and opportunities that shape their communities.

Michael Miller
Chief Executive Officer
Genesee & Wyoming Inc.
mmiller@gwrr.com
(904) 596-1759

Michael has served as CEO of Genesee & Wyoming since September 2023. His 15-year tenure with G&W also includes roles as President of G&W North America, overseeing both commercial and operating functions, and Chief Commercial Officer of North America, responsible for all commercial functions. Prior to that, Michael managed Norfolk Southern's Modalgistics supply chain organization, was Vice President of Strategic Development for Derivion Corp, and held numerous logistics-related positions with both Georgia-Pacific and Roadway Express. Michael graduated from North Carolina State University with a bachelor's degree in Industrial Engineering and a master's degree in Business Management. His professional training includes supply chain certifications from Georgia Tech and the University of Tennessee as well as executive development programs from The Darden Business School at the University of Virginia. Michael currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Association of American Railroads and Cargomatic. He has served as a member of the Council for Supply Chain Management Professionals, an advisory board member of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce's Supply Chain Leadership Council, and a steering committee member of the Freight Advisory Task Force. Michael was awarded the Diolkos Award at the Rail and Maritime Summit in 2024 and the Atlanta Logistics Professional of Year by the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce in 2007. Michael and his wife, Shannon, have been married for 31 years. They have two daughters and reside in Jacksonville, FL.

Rajeet Mohan
Partner
PwC
rajeet.mohan@pwc.com
(786) 303-4986

Rajeet is a partner in PwC's transportation and travel practice focused on technology strategy and digital transformations. Mr. Mohan has over 18 years of consulting experience working for transportation, travel, and consumer market clients. He advises Class I rail companies on their technology investment decisions and digital platform initiatives. He holds a Master of Science in Industrial Engineering from Oklahoma State University, where he focused on operations research and management information systems. Rajeet holds a Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering from the National Institute of Technology, India.

Charley Moore
Senior Vice President, Head of Sales
Trinity Industries
charley.moore@trin.net
(214) 589-8904

Charley Moore is the senior vice president, head of commercial sales for Trinity Industries. Trinity Industries, headquartered in Dallas, TX, owns businesses that are leading providers of rail transportation products and services in North America. Their rail-related businesses market their railcar products and services under the trade name TrinityRail. The TrinityRail integrated platform provides railcar leasing and management services, to include newly developed digital technologies, as well as railcar manufacturing, maintenance and modifications. Charley joined Trinity Industries in 2018, leading Trinity's customer delivery and fleet management solutions team. He was promoted in 2020 to lead Trinity's agriculture sales team. Before joining Trinity, Charley spent 18 years with BNSF Railway, where he worked in a leadership capacity across the customer service, audit, equipment management, and sales departments, enabling him to work directly with and develop solutions for strategic customers. He received a Bachelor of Science in Marketing from Harding University and later received a Master of Business Administration from Texas Christian University (TCU). Charley also taught supply chain at TCU for five years after graduating with an MBA. He has also served as a member of the National Grain Car Counsel.

Jaimie Moresette
General Director – Sourcing
Union Pacific
jsryan@up.com
(402) 544-0733

Jaimie Moresette has worked for Union Pacific Railroad for 22 years, where she currently serves as the General Director of Strategic Sourcing within the Supply Department. In this role, she oversees sourcing strategies for Engineering, Transportation, and Lodging, directing procurement activities for more than $2 billion in annual spend. She leads the development and execution of category driven sourcing strategies that generate step change savings, while guiding a team of supply chain professionals to deliver continuous improvements in cost, quality, and service. Previously, Jaimie served as Senior Director of Strategic Sourcing, Director of Supplier Quality, and Manager of the Supply Chain Fulfillment group. Before transitioning into Supply Chain, she held multiple roles within the Mechanical Car Department. She has represented Union Pacific on the AAR Quality Assurance Committee and previously served on the AAR Umler Committee. Jaimie holds a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration from Bellevue University in Omaha, NE, and has earned Lean Certification from the University of Kentucky's College of Engineering.

Jason Morris
Chief Legal Officer
Norfolk Southern
jason.morris2@nscorp.com
(757) 617-8101

Jason Morris is Senior Vice President and Chief Legal Officer at Norfolk Southern Corporation. In his current role, Morris leads Norfolk Southern's law division, which includes oversight over the company's legal, government relations, corporate secretary, compliance, risk management, claims and environmental protection functions. Morris joined Norfolk Southern in 2010. Before his appointment as Chief Legal Officer, Morris held a variety of roles in the law department, including being appointed Vice President Law in 2022. He has also served in roles in the operations division and transformation division, including Vice President Labor Relations and Assistant Vice President Safety and Environmental. In his various roles, he has led significant safety and environmental initiatives, reduced claims expenses, and supported the implementation of innovative safety measures. Prior to joining Norfolk Southern, Morris built experience in logistics, crisis management and legislative strategy while serving in several roles within the United States Air Force and Virginia Air National Guard and spending time as a Legislative Director with the United States House of Representatives. Morris earned a Juris Doctor from the University of Virginia School of Law and a Bachelor of Science in Management with a Math Minor from the United States Air Force Academy. In addition, he completed the Executive Development Program at Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University.

Jeff Mower
Vice President, Key Accounts
Holman
jeff.mower@holman.com
(260) 415-4891

Jeff Mower serves as vice president of key accounts at Holman, where he leads a team dedicated to delivering comprehensive solutions to highly complex client segments, including Class 1 railroads. This integrated group unites Holman's strategic, service, and technical resources to support key customers with services including vehicle design and acquisition, upfitting, fleet management, and consulting. With 20 years of experience at Holman, Jeff has held several leadership roles, including vice president and director of Holman Rail Services, as well as rail sales manager. He holds a bachelor's degree in marketing from Indiana University. Jeff's deep industry knowledge and customer-first approach have been instrumental in driving long-term partnerships and operational excellence across Holman's key accounts.

Adam Moyer
Director Procurement
CSX Transportation
adam_moyer@csx.com
(321) 917-2239

Adam Moyer serves as director of procurement at CSX, where he leads strategic sourcing for locomotives; freight cars; maintenance, repair and operations; fuel; and asset disposition in support of the company's mechanical and network operations departments. Since joining CSX in 2012, Adam has held a variety of finance and procurement roles spanning financial planning and analysis, engineering, and operations. He holds a Master of Business Administration from the University of North Florida and dual bachelor's degrees in finance and accounting from Florida State University.

Dan Muessel
Manager of Railroad Sales
American Concrete Products
dmuessel@amconco.com
(402) 306-7132

Dan Muessel is the manager of sales and service at American Concrete Products, the leading supplier of precast and prestressed concrete for the railroad industry. With over 10 years of experience in sales and project management for the precast concrete industry, Dan strives to provide exceptional customer service.

Jill Mulligan
Executive Vice President and Chief Legal Officer
BNSF Railway
jill.mulligan@bnsf.com
(817) 352-2353

Jill Mulligan was appointed executive vice president and chief legal officer in 2022 with responsibility for legal and regulatory matters. Jill joined BNSF in 2007 as a general attorney and was promoted to associate general counsel, regulatory in 2012. In December 2015, she was promoted to vice president and general counsel, regulatory, where she was responsible for overseeing a variety of legal matters including litigation, transactions, economic and safety regulations, inter-carrier relations, labor and employment. Since June of 2020, Jill has also had oversight of the claims department, with responsibility for incident response, investigation and handling of personal injury and property damage claims. Additionally, Jill oversees audit, environmental and compliance matters. Prior to joining BNSF, Jill was a member of the transportation group at the law firm of Steptoe & Johnson LLP, located in Washington, D.C. While at Steptoe, Jill advised railroad clients on regulatory and commercial litigation matters, rulemakings and adjudicatory proceedings before the Surface Transportation Board. Prior to law school, Jill worked in Washington, D.C., as a member of staff for Representative Bruce F. Vento (MN).

Thomas Munns
Director Engineering Procurement
CSX Transportation
thomas_munns@csx.com
(904) 279-6387

A procurement and supply chain leader with nearly a decade of progressive experience at CSX Transportation, spanning procurement, finance, accounting, payroll systems, and asset management. He currently serves as Director Engineering Procurement, where he leads strategic sourcing initiatives and supplier negotiations, generating significant value through cost savings, rebates, and operational efficiencies.

Mike Neal
State Director
GoRail
mneal@gorail.org
(317) 734-7200

As GoRail's Midwest State Director, Mike Neal brings more than 15 years of experience across state government, regulatory oversight, political operations, and public affairs. He has a strong track record in legislative strategy, stakeholder engagement, and coalition-building, and is known for translating complex policy and infrastructure issues into clear priorities and practical outcomes for communities, employers, and taxpayers. Mike's work centers on building trusted relationships with state and local elected officials, community leaders, and key stakeholders—helping local priorities lead the conversation and connecting them to federal decision-making through coordinated advocacy. He has extensive experience communicating complex issues in a practical, locally grounded way and helping leaders translate policy into action. Before joining GoRail, Mike held senior leadership roles with the Office of the Indiana Treasurer of State, the Indiana Utility Regulatory Commission, the Indiana National Guard, and the Office of Indiana Governor Mike Pence. He also founded Neal Consulting Group, supporting political campaigns and issue advocacy initiatives, and has led advance operations for the White House. Neal holds a master's degree in management and leadership from Western Governors University and resides in suburban Indianapolis, Indiana with his wife Kristen and their three children.

Lee Newitt
Chief Executive Officer
Direct ChassisLink, Inc. (DCLI)
lee.newitt@dcli.com
(704) 995-3785

Lee became chief executive officer at DCLI in January 2024 after having served as president since November 2019. He joined the company as vice president of finance in 2013 and played a key role in establishing business processes and building out the finance organization following their carve out from Maersk. Lee was promoted to senior vice president and chief financial officer in 2017 and in that role was at the center of DCLI's acquisition of TRAC Intermodal's domestic chassis business. He has been a member of the team engineering each successful sale of the company: from Littlejohn to EQT to Apollo to the current owners. Prior to joining DCLI, Lee spent ten years with one of the largest telecoms in the US, FairPoint Communications, where he held various roles in finance and strategy and helped grow that company from $200 million to over $1 billion in revenue.

John Newman
President and Chief Executive Officer
Progress Rail
jnewman@progressrail.com
(205) 862-1883

John Newman is a senior vice president of Caterpillar Inc. and president and chief executive officer of Progress Rail, a Caterpillar company. He has responsibility for one of the largest integrated, diversified providers of rolling stock and infrastructure solutions and technologies for the global rail industry. John joined Caterpillar in 2011 as an attorney with the Legal Services Division, providing support to Progress Rail. He later joined Progress Rail's commercial team, where he served as regional director of Sub-Saharan Africa, based in Pretoria, South Africa, and as the company's strategic sales director. In 2015, John was promoted to senior vice president of corporate services, with responsibility for various administrative functions, as well as strategic growth, including mergers and acquisitions. In 2018, he was promoted to executive vice president of infrastructure, a position he held for five years before assuming his current role. Prior to joining Caterpillar, John gained domestic and international experience working in the pharmaceutical, technology and textile industries before deciding to study law. After law school, he practiced at Burr & Forman LLP, where he focused on business planning, mergers and acquisitions, economic development, and antitrust matters. John holds a bachelor's degree in engineering from Auburn University, a master's degree in international business administration from the Darla Moore School of Business at the University of South Carolina, and a J.D., cum laude, from the University of Alabama. Outside the office, John has served on the Board of Directors of the Business Council of Alabama, on the Board of Directors of the Marshall County Economic Development Council, and the Arthritis Foundation's Southeast Region.

Andrea Niethold
Head of US Public and Government Affairs CN
andrea.niethold@cn.ca
(202) 763-6485

Andrea Waldock Niethold is the head of U.S. government affairs at CN, based in Washington, D.C. In this role, she leads the company's U.S. federal advocacy strategy, engaging with lawmakers and regulators on key issues affecting CN and the broader freight rail industry. With a deep understanding of transportation policy and public affairs, Andrea works to advance CN's priorities in Washington while strengthening relationships with stakeholders across government and industry.

Matthew Nolleti
VP Business Development
Accomodations Plus International
matthew.nolletti@apiglobalsolutions.com
(788) 885-7025

Based in Vancouver, Matthew Nolletti is Vice President of Business Development, Americas at Accommodations Plus International (API), where he partners with organizations across the Americas to modernize crew accommodations through technology, strategic sourcing, and operational transformation. With 14 years of experience in the software industry, Matthew has also held leadership roles at CAE Flightscape (formerly Sabre AirCentre), CAE Pelesys – Training Management & Content Solutions, and Pelesys Learning Systems Inc. He is known for helping senior executives identify opportunities to reduce costs, improve operational efficiency, and enhance the crew experience by building collaborative, long-term partnerships that deliver measurable business outcomes.

Mike O'Malley
Chief Administrative Officer
Direct ChassisLink, Inc. (DCLI)
mike.omalley@dcli.com
(904) 314-2152

Mike O'Malley serves as Chief Administrative Officer for DCLI where he has responsibility for the company's legal, human resources, safety, and government & public relations functions. In this role he serves as the primary point of contact with government officials and other external stakeholders while effectively managing risk and helping to recruit, retain and develop employees to enable the company's continued growth. He has three decades of experience in public affairs, transportation, and supply chain-related leadership positions, including past roles at the U.S. Department of Transportation (DOT), CSX, and the Railway Supply Institute (RSI). Mr. O'Malley holds a Bachelor of Science in Finance from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, an MBA from Northwestern University's Kellogg School of Management, and a Master of Science in European Studies from the London School of Economics.

Trip O'Neil
Vice President, Strategic Services
Holman
trip.oneil@holman.com
(331) 201-7946

Trip O'Neil joined Holman's Fleet Management business in 2017 and today leads Strategic Services, which is an organization providing account management, consulting & analytics, servicing and specialized support to Holman's largest and most complex customers. Holman is a leading provider of vehicle design, upfit and fleet management services to corporate clients across multiple industry verticals. Trip's experience spans nearly 27 years within the fleet and mobility space, holding various leadership roles across sales, account management, and customer support. Trip has a bachelor's degree in psychology from St. Louis University and an MBA from the Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University. He and his family reside outside of Philadelphia in Southern New Jersey.

Babatunde Oso
Group Vice President, Digital Intelligence Commercial Wabtec
babatunde.oso@wabtec.com
(203) 923-3257

Babatunde "Oso" Oso serves as Group Vice President, Digital Intelligence, Commercial at Wabtec, where he leads global commercial strategy, customer value realization, and partner ecosystem development for digital solutions that enhance safety, efficiency, and operational performance across rail and industrial markets. His leadership philosophy—anchored in clarity, consistency, accountability, and deep customer engagement—reflects his commitment to empowering teams and delivering sustainable, measurable outcomes. From 2012 to 2023, Oso held progressive senior leadership roles across Sub-Saharan Africa (SSA), spanning his time at GE and Wabtec. His tenure included driving commercial expansion, strengthening regional partnerships, and shaping rail modernization programs across both Francophone and Lusophone Africa. This period integrated his roles in GE Africa's business development and localization agenda, his leadership of GE Transportation's Africa commercial organization, and ultimately his tenure as the Senior Regional Executive for Wabtec's Africa business based in Johannesburg, South Africa. Before assuming Africa and global commercial leadership responsibilities, Oso built a broad-based global career at GE, beginning in 2002. He completed the Financial Management Program (FMP), served on the Corporate Audit Staff, and led major strategic transactions across NBCU, GE Energy, Aviation, Consumer & Industrial, and GE Capital as an executive in GE's Global Business Development team. His professional background includes $34B+ in closed M&A transactions and more than a decade of expatriate experience across Europe, the Middle East, and Africa. Widely recognized for his strengths in sales strategy, pricing, transformation leadership, commercial excellence, and cross-functional execution, Oso remains an active contributor to global dialogues on digitalization, rail transformation, and emerging-market industrialization. He holds a Bachelor's degree in Accounting from Morris Brown College and is a certified Six Sigma Black Belt. He is currently based in Atlanta, Georgia, USA.

Andrea Oswald
General Director - Strategic Sourcing
Union Pacific Railroad
aldeiche@up.com
(402) 544-346

Andrea Oswald is the General Director – Strategic Sourcing at Union Pacific Railroad, a position she has held since July 2023. In her position, Oswald and her team source materials and services for rolling stock, intermodal/automotive ramps, professional and industrial services, and maintenance & repair operations (MRO), which totals over $2.7 billion in annual spending. In addition, Oswald leads the procurement team's sustainability initiatives and supplier advancement and expansion team. Oswald began her career with Union Pacific in 2003. She held positions throughout the Finance Department including in Corporate Audit, Capital Planning, and Accounting before moving to the Supply Chain Department in December 2019. While in Supply Chain, she led the Supplier Diversity program and grew diverse supplier spending nearly 100% during her tenure to over $800 million. Outside of Union Pacific, Oswald serves on the Dean's Young Alumni Board of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln

College of Business and the Nebraska Early Futures Partnership Board of Directors. She previously served on the Omaha Children's Museum Board of Directors. Oswald graduated from the University of Nebraska – Lincoln with a bachelor's degree in Finance. She enjoys spending time with her family, including her husband Ryan and daughters Lauren and Sloane, reading, playing golf, and dominating her fantasy football leagues.

Joe Parsons
President and Chief Executive Officer
Iowa Interstate Railroad, LLC
jbparsons@iaisrr.com
(319) 826-4225

Joe Parsons has been president and chief executive officer of Iowa Interstate Railroad (IAIS) since September 2018 and served as executive vice president and chief operating officer for the five years prior. Parsons has 22 years in the railroad industry, starting with Norfolk Southern in 2003. Prior to joining Iowa Interstate, Parsons had 10 years of railroad management experience at both Class I and short line railroads. Parsons holds a bachelor's degree from West Virginia Wesleyan College and earned his Master of Business Administration from the University of Iowa. He serves on various industry committees such as the American Shortline and Regional Railroad Association (ASLRRA) Board of Directors, BNSF Railway Short Line Caucus, and represents IAIS at the Association of American Railroads (AAR) Board.

Jon Perez
Chief Financial Officer
TTX Company
jonathan.perez@ttx.com
(312) 720-7660

Jon Perez serves as Vice President and Chief Financial Officer at TTX Company. In this role, he oversees the company's financial strategy and operations, including financial planning and analysis, treasury, capital planning, investor relations, tax, enterprise risk management and financial reporting. He is responsible for ensuring TTX's financial strength and supporting the company's long-term strategic objectives.

Corey Plunkett
Senior Director, Sourcing and Supply Chain - Engineering
Norfolk Southern
corey.plunkett@nscorp.com
(540) 293-2147

Corey Plunkett brings over 28 years of experience with the company, having built a well-rounded career through a variety of roles that have expanded his perspective and leadership capabilities. He transitioned into sourcing in 2007, where he developed a strong foundation in procurement and supplier engagement. Over the past 15+ years, Corey has focused on sourcing and supply chain, gaining deep expertise in procurement strategy, supplier relationships, and value creation. His experience has enabled him to contribute meaningfully to the evolution of sourcing practices across the organization.

Todd Podell
Vice President and Chief Sourcing Officer
BNSF Railway
todd.podell@bnsf.com
(817) 352-2000

Todd Podell serves as Chief Sourcing Officer at BNSF Railway, where he leads enterprise-wide sourcing, procurement, supply chain strategy, facilities operations, fuel management, and corporate travel. Todd also serves as Co-Chair of Berkshire Hathaway's Executive Steering Committee focused on leveraging supplier spend across portfolio companies. Prior to BNSF, Todd served as Senior Vice President and Chief Procurement and Corporate Services Officer at Discover Financial Services, where he led global procurement and sourcing, contract governance, real estate and facilities, security, and corporate insurance functions. Previously, Todd held leadership roles in business transformation and supply chain at Novartis, McDonald's, and AMD. He began his professional career as a trial attorney. Todd received his Bachelor of Science degree in Business from Arizona State University, and received his Juris Doctor from Marquette University Law School.

Basil Polivka
President and Chief Executive Officer
Polivka International Company, Inc.
basilp@polivkaintl.com
(704) 321-0802

Basil Polivka has over 40 years of experience in general contracting and engineering. Polivka International is a leading general contractor in the rail infrastructure industry with a 60-year heritage. Polivka's work as a part of the innovation wing of Polivka International (known as Rollpark) has led to the development of a low impact alternative to asphalt, receiving nine patents and multiple accolades. He earned a BS in civil engineering and has completed Harvard's executive business program.

Alexa Polivka
Chief Commercial Officer
Polivka International Company, Inc.
alexap@polivkaintl.com
(704) 321-0802

Alexa Polivka is an experienced railroad industry professional with more than 16 years of leadership and operational experience through her work with Polivka International, a company specializing in railroad infrastructure solutions. Over the course of her career, she has developed extensive expertise in commercial strategy, client relations, project coordination, and operational management within the transportation and rail sectors.

Ron Port
Chief Executive Officer
A. Stucki Company
ronald.port@stucki.com
(412) 424-0560

Ron Port is chief executive officer of A. Stucki Company, a Pittsburgh-based supplier of engineered products, maintenance of way services and reconditioning and repair services for the railway industry. Port has an extensive track record leading and growing businesses. For four years, he was president of the aerospace, defense and marine business unit at TE Connectivity, a global manufacturer of products for transportation, industrial, and communications applications. Based in Middletown, PA, he managed more than 7,000 employees and 19 manufacturing facilities across the globe. Earlier in his career, Port was chief commercial officer at Kennametal, a manufacturer of high-performance cutting tools and engineered components, and president of the company's infrastructure business segment, with global responsibility for the advanced materials, earth cutting tools, engineering components and ceramics business. He also held leadership positions at Xylem, Inc. and ITT Corporation. Port holds a bachelor's degree in chemical engineering and a Master of Business Administration from the University of Pittsburgh, and a master's degree in chemical engineering from the Florida Institute of Technology. He joined Stucki in July 2024.

David Purifoy
Senior Director, Commercial Segment Leader
A. Stucki Company
david.purifoy@stucki.com
(205) 668-6720

David Purifoy, Sr. Director, Commercial Segment Leader – Class I & Shortline Railroads at A. Stucki Company, is an experienced rail industry leader supporting freight rail customers across North America. He works closely with Class I and Shortline railroads to deliver reliable components and solutions that enhance safety, compliance, and operational performance. Known for a hands-on, customer-focused approach, David collaborates across sales, engineering, and operations to ensure responsive, value-driven outcomes. He is committed to helping rail partners improve uptime, reduce risk, and maximize long-term asset performance through practical, results-oriented solutions.

Jim Raines
Vice President Sales
Stella-Jones Corporation
jraines@stella-jones.com
(304) 532-3932

A seasoned railway industry professional with over 33 years of experience, Jim Raines began his career in 1991 when he joined Burke-Parsons-Bowlby as an inside sales representative. In the following years, he advanced through the sales group, eventually taking on the role of director of commercial sales in 2008, at which time Stella-Jones acquired the assets of the Burke-Parsons-Bowlby business. In his 15-year tenure at Stella-Jones, Jim has supported the growth of the company's railway tie product category through his expertise in sales and management. In his current role, he is responsible for all railway tie sales at Stella-Jones, lending his leadership to the sales team to build and maintain positive, long-term partnerships with customers. Jim holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration specializing in marketing from Marshall University.

Rance Randle CEO
Genesis Rail Company
rrandle@genesisrailco.com
(334) 742-3033

Rance Randle is currently the President and CEO of Genesis Rail Services Company, where he oversees a wide range of rail services for Class 1, Regional, and Shortline railroads, as well as industrial clients. Prior to this role, Rance spent 25 years in various operational roles at BNSF and CN Railroads, with responsibilities spanning transportation, mechanical, engineering, and network operations. Most recently, he led the field and rail services division at Cathcart Rail Services, managing car inspection and repair, shortline railroads, and switching services nationwide. Rance and his family live in the Greater Chicago Area, where they are actively involved in their local church and community.

Brandon Riddering
Vice President Sales and Marketing
Loram Maintenance of Way, Inc.
brandon.riddering@loram.com
(612) 360-8440

As the VP, Sales and Marketing, Mr. Riddering has responsibility for all aspects of LORAM's contract services sales and marketing efforts. Riddering joined Loram in 2014 as a Regional Sales Manager and became Marketing Director in 2018. He holds a B.S. in Marketing and Business Administration from Concordia College.

Russell Rohlfs
Vice President - Engineering
Union Pacific Railroad
rsrohlfs@up.com
(402) 544-8895

Rohlfs holds the position of Vice President Engineering where he leads the Engineering team and overall responsibility of nearly 10,000 employees in the design, construction and maintenance of all track, structures, and signal systems across Union Pacific's 32,000 mile, 23-state operation. He is responsible for ensuring his team provides safe and reliable services while maintaining operational excellence.

Brad Roseberry
President
Coalition Against Bigger Trucks (CABT)
broseberry@cabt.org
(571) 480-5483

Brad Roseberry serves as president for the Coalition Against Bigger Trucks (CABT) and as a member of its board of directors. Rosebery joined CABT in 2010 and has served as vice president and national field director. CABT is a national grassroots organization that works to maintain the current size and weight limits on trucks that travel our roads. Founded in 1995, CABT has worked in virtually every state in the country since it was formed and counts law enforcement, first responders and local government officials as its key allies in its campaign against bigger trucks. As president, Roseberry, among other responsibilities, is responsible for the overall strategy of the organization, including federal and state legislative campaigns, Capitol Hill outreach, staff management, budgets, industry relations and financial and legal compliance.

Phil Roseberry
Director of Commercial Strategy
Cranemasters, Inc.
phil.roseberry@cranemasters.com
(804)236-4900

A graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, Phil has worked in sales and operations roles in the transportation industry for over thirty years. He began working directly with railroads in 2007, focusing on growing existing lines of business and developing new revenue streams. Since joining the team at Cranemasters he has worked closely with Class 1 railroads, short lines, and industries developing solutions for emergency derailments, engineering projects, and salvage operations. Phil believes customers should understand that the Cranemasters approach to business is proactive, not reactive. Instead of providing the standard response of "that's how it's always been done," Cranemasters provides disruptive innovation that delivers value to the rail industry.

Christy Sammon
State Director
GoRail
csammon@gorail.org
(770) 301-7359

Christy Sammon is a seasoned governmental relations expert with over 15 years of experience in advocacy, public affairs, and strategic fundraising. Before joining GoRail, she served as Federal Legislative Affairs Director for two national trade associations. Sammon also spent many years as a professional fundraiser, leading campaigns for clients in higher education and the non-profit sector, as well as political candidates at every level. A native of Georgia, Christy earned her Bachelor of Science in Political Science from the University of West Georgia. She and her husband, Tom, have two adult sons. Outside of work, Christy enjoys spending time with family, traveling, following politics, watching college football and professional golf.

Brett Sebastian
National Field Director
GoRail
bsebastian@gorail.org
(713) 927-3083

Brett Sebastian joined GoRail in August 2019 and oversees its operations in the Central United States and Pennsylvania. Brett has worked in public policy in Washington D.C., Austin, and Oklahoma City where he has acted as an advocate for the infrastructure, healthcare, and construction industries. A former journalist who covered several state sessions of the Oklahoma Legislature, Brett has previously worked on Senate, Attorney General, and Gubernatorial campaigns in Texas. He is a Texas native and received a B.S. in Geography from Texas A&M University before earning a J.D. from South Texas College of Law.

Brett Siedelmann
Vice President Sales
Hulcher Services, Inc.
bsiedel@hulcher.com
(800) 659-8032

Brett Siedelmann currently serves as vice president at Hulcher Services, Inc. He has worked in the railroad industry for the Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railroad as well as Railtex before going to work for Hulcher Services in 1998. Brett graduated from the University of Nebraska with a business degree.

Curtis Sloan
Vice President, Policy and Sustainability Watco
curtis.sloan@watco.com
(202) 643-8576

Curtis has worked in the broader railroad industry since 2004, including in multiple positions at GoRail and the Coalition Against Bigger Trucks, and joined Watco in 2021. He helps Watco properties build relationships at all levels of government, leads carbon accounting efforts, authors and manages grants, and is helping build the company's sustainability program.

Mike Smythers
Vice President - Federal Government Affairs
BNSF Railway
michael.smythers@bnsf.com
(202) 347-8667

Mike Smythers joined BNSF as assistant vice president for federal government affairs in April 2006 and was promoted to vice president in August 2019. He has 30 years of experience in federal government relations and transportation policy. Before joining BNSF, Smythers served as special assistant to the President in the White House Office of Legislative Affairs. From 1999 to 2004 he was the assistant vice president of government affairs for CSX Corporation's Washington, D.C. office. Smythers had previously worked for five years in the United States Senate.

Sheetal Spiegel
Assistant Vice President, Sourcing & Supply Chain
Norfolk Southern
sheetal.spiegel@nscorp.com
(470) 716-5924

Sheetal Spiegel joined the Norfolk Southern Sourcing department in 2015 and has since served in various roles of increasing responsibility. She currently leads the Sourcing & Supply Chain team after briefly supporting integration activities for the Digital & Tech team. She earned a bachelor's in business administration and marketing from the College of William and Mary.

Brad Stock
Vice President, Supply Chain
Union Pacific Railroad
bkstock@up.com
(402) 544-3861

Brad Stock was appointed Vice President – Supply Chain in February 2026. In his current role, Brad is responsible for the procurement, fulfillment, transportation, and warehousing of over $8 billion of material and services that support Union Pacific. Prior to his current role, Brad was the Assistant Vice President – Accounting since 2025. Since joining the Company in 1998, Brad has held previous roles in Investor Relations, Accounting, Treasury, and Planning & Analysis. Brad graduated from Nebraska Wesleyan University with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration in 1998.

Mike Stolzman
Chief Executive Officer
Hulcher Services, Inc.
mike.stolzman@hulcher.com
(940) 898-9647

M.D. (Mike) Stolzman serves as Chief Executive Officer of Hulcher, bringing more than 30 years of leadership experience across Class I railroads, short line railroads, ports, and industrial operations. Mike began his railroad career after honorably serving as an artillery officer in the U.S. Army. He joined the Chicago & North Western Railway and later participated in its integration with Union Pacific and Southern Pacific. His career has also included leadership roles with Canadian National, Anacostia & Pacific Rail Holdings, the New Orleans Public Belt Railroad, the Port of New Orleans, and most recently, the Alameda Belt Line serving the Ports of Los Angeles and Long Beach. Throughout his career, Mike has built and led organizations with a strong emphasis on operational excellence, accountability, and service. As CEO of Hulcher, Mike is focused on four priorities: safety, people, customers, and sustainable growth. His leadership philosophy starts with ensuring every employee goes home safely, developing and empowering Hulcher's people, earning the trust of customers through dependable service, and positioning the company for long-term growth. Mike and his wife have been married for more than 25 years and have six children.

Mark Strelow
Director Purchasing Engineering Services
Norfolk Southern
mark.strelow@nscorp.com
(470) 463-6731

Mark joined Norfolk Southern and the Sourcing department in 2015 as a management trainee. He has held positions of increasing responsibility supporting mechanical, engineering, and operations. He is currently the Purchasing Director for Engineering Services. Mark attended Roanoke College where he earned a bachelor's in Business Administration.

Marty Thomas
President & CEO
TTX Company
marty.thomas@ttx.com
(682) 229-7241

Marty joined TTX in 2024 ago as Corporate Executive Vice President where he is currently responsible for the following departments: Supply Chain, Information Technology, Finance, and Fleet Management. Previously, he worked for GE Transportation / Westinghouse Air Brake Corporation (Wabtec) for 28 years. He progressed throughout his career, serving as Shift Supervisor, Field Service Engineer, Locomotive Shop Plant Manager, Global Lean Six Sigma Master Black Belt, BNSF and UPRR Account Executive, Enterprise Quality Executive, and Sr. Executive Global Operations for a $3.6B business segment. Marty has a diverse background and wealth of experience in lean, plant management, North America Class 1 railroad mechanical operations, integrated supply chains, manufacturing, aftermarket remanufacturing, supplier/customer commercial negotiations, P&L leadership, global fleet asset management, enterprise quality and acquisition integration. He received his BS in Technology from Montana State University – Northern and holds an MBA from Frostburg State University – Maryland. Marty is married with three sons and enjoys being outdoors in the mountains of Montana with his family.

Emily Traiforos
State Director
GoRail
etraiforos@gorail.org
(224) 220-1560

Emily Traiforos joined GoRail in March 2006 and oversees its operations in the Upper Midwest and Northeast. Prior to GoRail, she worked in the Strategic Planning and Development Office at an international non-profit in Washington, D.C. Traiforos has volunteered and worked on several political campaigns, interned in the U.S. Senate, and holds a B.S. in political science from Arizona State University.

Monish Tyagi
Partner, PwC Digital Operations
PwC
monish.tyagi@pwc.com
(416) 727-5982

Monish is a Partner in PwC's Digital Operations and Supply Chain practice, based in Toronto. He brings over 14 years of experience across the Transportation & Logistics sector, with deep expertise in Class-1 rail operations, terminal productivity, and enterprise cost transformation. Monish has led large-scale mandates for Class I rail clients, including a multi-year Intermodal Terminal Automation program and an 18-month cost transformation effort that delivered $100M+ in sustained savings. He specializes in bringing emerging technologies, including IIoT, telematics, Digital Twins, Optimizers, and Physical AI (robotics, autonomous drones), into rail operations, helping clients modernize core operations across Intermodal, Transportation, and Networking, with a focus on incremental value realization.

Jim Vena
Chief Executive Officer
Union Pacific Railroad
jimvena@up.com
(402) 544-5858

Jim Vena leads Union Pacific Corp. and Union Pacific Railroad as CEO. He has more than 45 years of railroad industry experience, with a demonstrated track record of driving best-in-class operating and service results. Vena started from the ground up at Canadian National Railway (CN) and worked in the Engineering, Mechanical and Operating departments, including operating trains as a locomotive engineer. After graduating from university, he worked in management across Operations, Marketing, Strategic Planning and Labor Relations at CN. Vena ultimately was promoted to executive vice president and chief operating officer. As Union Pacific's chief operating officer from 2019-2020, Vena oversaw a team that achieved efficiency savings and delivered the best service product in the company's history. He served as senior advisor to the chairman in 2021 and returned to Union Pacific as CEO in August 2023. As CEO, his goal is to continue to drive best-in-class results in Safety, Service and Operational Excellence. Vena is grounded in his responsibility as CEO to drive results and look at what's possible to move forward for our customers, our employees and our owners.

Frank Voyack
Vice President Government Relations
Norfolk Southern
frank.voyack@nscorp.com
(804) 229-2979

Voyack leads Norfolk Southern's efforts in Washington, D.C., overseeing the railroad's federal, state and local government relations. Voyack joined Norfolk Southern in 2008 and most recently served as assistant vice president of government relations. Voyack is a graduate of Virginia Commonwealth University and also holds a master's from Georgetown University.

Harry Waters
Vice President Railroad and Transit
The Okonite Company
h.waters@okonite.com
(770) 928-9778

Harry has been with The Okonite Company for over 29 years. He started his career with Okonite as a Sales Representative in the Charlotte Sales Office covering accounts in the North Carolina Territory. He was promoted to District Manager for the Okonite Atlanta Sales Office in January of 2001. His account responsibilities included calling on the Norfolk Southern C&S Engineers in Atlanta. Shortly thereafter, he took over the account responsibility for the NS Procurement group, then located in Roanoke Virginia and continued to call on them when they moved the department to Norfolk. His other account responsibilities included handling the cable requirements for several Atlanta based cable distributors that specialized in new transit projects all over the country. Prior to his Okonite experience, Harry worked as a Sales Representative for Mill Power Supply Company (formerly an electrical distributor business owned by Duke Power Company) where he sold Okonite cables to the Utility Industry.
Harry was promoted to Vice President Railroad & Transit in June of 2019 and is based in the Atlanta area. Harry has a bachelors of science in business administration with a concentration in marketing from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. He is married with three children and six grandchildren.

Tom Weaks
Chief Strategy Officer/Executive Vice President Operations
Mainline Services
tom@mainlinerr.com
(612) 910-4998

Tommy Weaks is a seasoned railroad executive with a distinguished 47-year career in the rail industry, specializing in complete rail services. Known for his hands-on leadership style and deep operational knowledge, Tommy has successfully led organizations through growth, modernization, and complex logistical challenges while maintaining a strong focus on safety, efficiency, and customer satisfaction. He has built and managed high-performing teams, implemented best-in-class service practices, and developed long-term partnerships with clients and stakeholders across the rail sector. With nearly five decades of experience, Tommy brings a rare combination of strategic vision, technical expertise, and practical insight, making him a trusted leader and advisor in the railroad industry.

Tyler White
Vice President Government Affairs
R. J. Corman Railroad Group
tyler.white@rjcorman.com
(859) 227-1558

Tyler White serves as Vice President of Government Affairs at R. J. Corman Railroad Group, LLC, where he leads strategic engagement with federal, state, and local agencies. He brings over 20 years of experience leading teams, beginning with his eight years in the U.S. Marine Corps, where he completed combat deployments to Iraq and Afghanistan. Tyler joined RJC in 2022 and previously served as Director of Project Management for Non-Emergency Services. Prior to RJC, he held leadership roles including District Director for U.S. Congressman Andy Barr and President of the Kentucky Coal Association. He holds a B.A. from the University of Kentucky, a Master of Liberal Arts (Business) from Harvard University, and a Certificate in Railway Management from Michigan State University.

Greg Williams
Senior Vice President
Corpay
gwilliams@clclodging.com
(316) 219-4285

Greg brings more than 25 years of lodging experience across customer-facing, operational, hotel/vendor management, and back-office roles. Based in Wichita, KS, he leads multiple teams across Corpay's Lodging division; Client Services for Workforce, Billing for Workforce, Airline and Insurance and Operations for the Workforce and Insurance groups. His industry experience with multiple functions across all areas of lodging gives him a strong understanding of customer needs and the ability to deliver practical solutions to make a successful lodging program.

Phil Wolfe
Chief Operating Officer
Direct ChassisLink, Inc. (DCLI)
philip.wolfe@dcli.com
(704) 654-9150

Phil Wolfe is the Chief Operating Officer at DCLI, where he oversees all operational functions across the company's Marine and Domestic portfolios. With a career spanning more than two decades in supply chain and logistics, Phil brings a strong track record of operational leadership, strategic growth, and customer-focused innovation. Since joining DCLI in 2015 to lead Marine Logistics for the national pool network, Phil has held several key leadership roles. As Director of Product Development, he led the design and execution of product enhancements that significantly improved commercial performance and customer satisfaction. In 2019, he was appointed Vice President of International Sales, where he drove a diversified growth strategy, expanding DCLI's market presence across the United States. Prior to DCLI, Phil served as Pool Manager for the South Atlantic Chassis Pool, the largest in Consolidated Chassis Management's network, where he was responsible for end-to-end chassis operations. He began his career in the logistics sector with roles spanning NVOCC operations, warehousing and distribution, and port drayage—building a broad foundation in supply chain management.

Jeff Wood
Senior Vice President Sales
TrinityRail
jeff.wood@trin.net
(615) 439-8452

Jeff Wood brings over 25 years of rail industry knowledge to TrinityRail. As a senior vice president, he leads the commercial team covering the Class 1 railroads, TTX and Mexico. He offers a diverse rail industry perspective to TrinityRail, having worked for an original equipment locomotive manufacturer and other railcar leasing institutions. In his spare time, Mr. Wood enjoys golfing, cycling, and vacationing at the beach.

Jack Zhang
Executive Vice President, Locomotive Division
Progress Rail
j.zhang@progressrail.com
(256) 505-6408

Jack Zhang is executive vice president of locomotive for Progress Rail, with executive leadership and responsibility for global sales, engineering, operations, product and project management, aftermarket, quality and advanced rail technology. Jack joined Progress Rail in 2023 as senior vice president of corporate and organizational strategy. He began his career with GE Transportation in 2002 and has worked for over 20 years in the rail industry, including experience in product management, commercial leadership, operations, and field services. Jack holds a bachelor's degree in business technology from Montana State University-Northern.

Robert Zmudka
Senior Vice President and Chief Commercial Officer GATX
robert.zmudka@gatx.com
(312) 621-4589

Robert Zmudka is the Senior Vice President and Chief Commercial Officer, Rail North America, for GATX Corporation. In this role, Rob leads all railcar sales activities across North America, as well as Service Delivery, Market Analysis, and Utilization-based leasing. Since assuming this position, he has restructured the Commercial organization to strengthen GATX's market leadership, adding key departments such as Emerging Technologies, Customer Experience, and Marketing to drive innovation and enhance customer engagement.

Ray Zuniga
President of Operations
Mainline Services
ray@mainlinerr.com
(816) 500-3210

Ray Zuniga, President of Operations of Mainline Services, brings 26 years of railroad service to his role, having built his career from the ground up beginning as a laborer and advancing through progressive leadership roles to President of Operations. This journey has given him a deep, firsthand understanding of railroad operations, mechanical services, and the people who keep the industry moving safely and efficiently every day. Throughout his career, Ray has remained firmly committed to safety as the top priority, believing that every job can and must be done without injury. He is equally dedicated to fostering a positive, accountable culture built on trust, respect, and teamwork. Strong customer relationships have been central to his leadership approach, with a focus on responsiveness, reliability, and delivering consistent value. Ray leads by example, emphasizing hard work, integrity, and continuous improvement. His experience allows him to balance operational excellence with people-first leadership, ensuring both employees and customers succeed. He takes pride in developing teams, strengthening partnerships, and driving results while never losing sight of the responsibility to protect his people and the communities they serve.